

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE REV. GEORGE ALLEN was born February 1st, 1792, and died on the 31st of March, 1883, aged ninety-one years and two months. He graduated at Yale College in 1813, and actively discharged the duties of his profession for more than fifty years. In the course of his long life he was brought in contact with many of the distinguished characters of his time; and his retentive memory reaching back into the last century was replete with reminiscence of persons and events. In the anti-slavery conflict he was intimately associated with most of the noted advocates of freedom, of whom his recollections are of great interest. He was the author of the celebrated Freesoil resolution of 1848.

In the Christian ministry Mr. Allen maintained a high position, and his influence among his clerical brethren was widely felt. His learning was thorough, and his extensive information made him an authority. As a conversationalist his powers were unexcelled.

The volume to be published will comprise Mr. Allen's reminiscences of Samuel Adams, Theophilus Parsons, Francis Dana, Artemas Ward, Timothy Pickering, Isaiah Thomas, Martin Van Buren, Aaron Burr, Chancellor Kent, S. F. B. Morse, J. Q. Adams, Daniel Webster, Edward Everett, John P. Hale, Charles Sumner, Joshua R. Giddings, and many other public men. His recollections of Worcester County Ministers of fifty years ago will be included, with other matter of interest.

An edition of only 250 copies will be printed. A portrait of Mr. Allen will be prefixed.

Price, Cloth, Gilt Top, . . . 2.00.
